

Moderator

Rupak Chattopadhyay

Rupak Chattopadhyay is President and CEO at the Forum of Federations. He was previously Vice President, Global Programs and Director of Asia-Pacific Programs at the Forum. In the latter capacity he headed the constitutional advisory program in support of the Sri Lankan peace talks from 2002-2004 and was closely involved in discussions on constitutional reforms in the Philippines. He sits on the editorial board of the Global Dialogue on Federalism series. He is currently a co-director of the Organizing Committee for the 5th International Conference on Federalism to be hosted by the Government of Ethiopia. He was previously a member of the Consultative Group for the Study of the Intergovernmental relations and dispute resolution mechanisms, Inter-State Council, Government of India (2005-2008). He was also Adviser to the Chairman of the Observer Research Foundation and Reliance India Ltd (2004-2006). He has also advised various commercial and industrial houses in India, Africa and Europe on government relations.

His recent publications include Intergovernmental Relations in Federal Countries, McGill Queen's University Press, 2010 (co-edited with Karl Nerenberg), Finance and Governance of Capital Cities in Federal Systems, McGill-Queen's University Press, 2009 (co-edited with Enid Slack). Dialogues on Diversity and Unity in Federal Countries McGill Queen's University Press, 2009 and a five-volume set entitled Unity in Diversity: Learning from Each Other, Viva Books India, 2008 (co-edited with Ronald Watts and John Kincaid).